ONTARIO MUNICIPAL HEALTH SERVICES BOARD

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, TORONTO 2

This Board is appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and acts as a co-ordinating body to establish health services in municipalities throughout the Province. The Board negotiates with organizations or groups to provide services to the residents and collects from the municipalities the funds necessary for payment of such services.

SUMMARY OF MUNICIPALITIES IN ONTARIO

At the close of 1946

Towns (Separated from County)	7
Towns (Counties 93, Districts 47)	140
Village (Counties 146, Districts 10)	156
Townships (Counties 429, Districts 140)	569
Improvement Districts (Counties 1, Districts 9) ..	10

Total Local Municipalities

Counties (43)

Total Incorporated Municipalities

There are 43 Counties, some of which are united for purposes of local government as follows:

Leeds and Grenville,
 Northumberland and Durham,
 Prescott and Russell,
 Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry.

The northern portion of the Province of Ontario is divided into 11 Districts and the southern portion into 43 Counties. The union of the following counties, Leeds-Grenville, Northumberland-Durham, Prescott-Russell and Stormont-Dundas and Glengarry reduces the county administrations to 38 distinct units for local government. The districts, unlike counties, are not organized for municipal purposes and as a result, the 211 incorporated municipalities contained therein are not united for municipal administration.

With the exception of the 23 cities and the 7 separated towns which are located within counties, the remaining 670 local municipalities in counties are united for administration in the counties of which they form part. This relationship is for the purpose of the administration of inter-related interests such as education, roads, welfare and administration of justice. Members of the County Councils are composed of the Reeves of all the local municipalities within the county and in certain cases the deputy Reeves.

The 7 separated towns are: Brockville, Gananoque, Ingersoll, Prescott, St. Mary's, Smith's Falls, Trenton.

POLICE VILLAGES

In addition to the organized villages listed elsewhere in the Ontario section of the Canadian Almanac, there are some 181 police villages.

A police village is run by a Board of Trustees elected by the residents. The Board of Trustees runs its local affairs, but cannot levy any taxes or make by-laws which involve the borrowing of money. It has to send in a requisition to the authorities of the township of which it is part for any finances it requires, such as for local improvements or lighting or village constabulary.

DATES OF MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS, ONTARIO

Municipal elections in Ontario are held at various dates provided for by The Municipal Act, Chapter 266, R.S.O., 1937, sections 64-71 as amended in 1947.

Section 64 provides that the nominations shall be held at noon on the last Monday in December except when the last Monday is Christmas day in which case nominations shall be held on the preceding Friday; and the date for polling shall be the first Monday in January, unless council under authority of section 65, not later than November 1st, passes a by-law fixing dates during the period November 15th to January 1st both inclusive for nominations and elections, said dates to be other than a Sunday or the 24th, 25th or 31st of December and provided the day fixed for nominations is not less than seven days prior to the day fixed for polling.

In addition, when new municipalities are erected, the Municipal Board may set the date for the holding of their first elections.

COURTS AND JUDGES—ONTARIO

The Supreme Court consists of two Branches, viz. The Court of Appeal and The High Court of Justice.

The Court of Appeal hears appeals from decisions of the High Court and of the lower courts.

The High Court of Justice hears various cases, criminal and civil, and has a wider jurisdiction than the lower courts. A trial judge sits several times each year in the various counties and judicial districts.

The next lower Courts are the County and District Courts and the Division Courts.

One of the County Court Judges in every County is also the Surrogate Judge. The Surrogate Courts deal with wills, and estates of deceased persons.

Appeals may be taken in certain cases, from the Supreme Court of Ontario to the Supreme Court of Canada, and from County, District and Division Courts to the Court of Appeal.

The Exchequer Court of Canada tries cases with which the Crown is concerned, admiralty matters, patents, copyrights, trade marks, Dominion Revenue, railways under the authority of the Parliament of Canada, and railways not wholly within one Province, and disputes between Provinces.

There is an Ontario branch of the Exchequer Court, known as the Ontario Admiralty District.

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANIZATION

The International Labour Organization, which was set up under the Peace Treaties concluded after the 1914-1918 war for the purpose of promoting social justice, is an association of nations. Its organs are the International Labour Conference, which normally meets annually and is composed of delegations representing the Governments, employers and workers of the member countries; the International Labour Office; and the Governing Body which is also composed of representatives of Governments and of employers' and workers' organizations. The seat of the International Labour Office is Geneva, Switzerland; but in 1940, a working centre was established in Montreal at the invitation of McGill University and with the cordial agreement of the Canadian Government. The diplomatic status of the I.L.O. in Canada is defined by Order-in-Council P.C. 6283 of 14 August, 1941. Since the organization was established, the International Labour Conference has adopted 76 conventions or treaties, some of which have been ratified by a large number of countries, and 78 formal recommendations; a variety of subjects has been dealt with, including employment and unemployment, wages, hours of work, rest periods and holidays with pay, health and safety and welfare in industry, social insurance, migration and statistics. These conventions and recommendations have been systematically arranged in a volume entitled The International Labour Code. The twenty-ninth session of the conference was held in Montreal, beginning September 19, 1946.

In 1910 the National Gallery of Canada Act (3-4 Geo. V. c. 33) was passed constituting an incorporated Board of Trustees for the management of the Gallery, the administration of its grants and for the encouragement of art generally throughout the Dominion.

In promoting this last part of its policy the National Gallery will lend to any public art body or society in Canada, which possesses the necessary facilities, a selection of Canadian paintings for any period up to one year. Loan exhibitions of the best contemporary paintings, drawings and prints, both Canadian and foreign are also arranged by the Gallery and shown across Canada in all the leading cities.

Colour reproductions of important works in the permanent collection suitable for framing and for use in schools bring the benefits of the National Gallery to every part of the country. Written lectures on different phases of art, with accompanying films or slides, are sent free except for transportation costs to any study group in Canada.

THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF CANADA, OTTAWA

The National Museum of Canada originated in the Geological Survey of Canada, which was founded in 1842 by Sir William Logan. Authority to designate it the "National Museum of Canada" was given by Order-in-Council P.C. 2615 of January 5, 1927. Formerly it was designated the Victoria Memorial Museum.

The National Museum exhibits collections illustrating the natural history of the Dominion; its Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Biology and Anthropology. The study collections which number over 18,000 mammals, 30,000 birds, over 4,800 lots of amphibians and reptiles, and smaller collections of fishes and marine and fresh water invertebrates are open to research by properly qualified students and certain classes of specimens, e.g., birds and mammals are available for loan under restriction. The Museum has a large collection of photographs of Indian and Eskimo life, birds, etc. Photographs, prints, lantern slides and motion picture films may be obtained at very moderate prices, or on loan.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

Bloor Street and Avenue Road, Toronto

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.—Robert Fennell, K.C., Chairman; Mrs. H. D. Warren, LL.D., 1st Vice-Chairman; Sigmund Samuel, LL.D., 2nd Vice-Chairman; Rev. H. J. Cody, D.D., LL.D.; Hon. George A. Drew, K.C., LL.D.; Hon. Leslie M. Frost, K.C.; D. B. Macdonald, M.A., LL.D.; Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, P.C.; Col. W. E. Phillips, C.B.E., D.S.O., M.C.; Sidney Smith, M.A., LL.D.; Miss Helen Reynar, Secretary.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM OF ARCHAEOLOGY.—Professor T. F. Mcllwraith, M.A., F.R.A.I., F.R.S.C., Acting Director and Keeper of Ethnological Collections; Prof. J. W. Graham, Keeper of Classical Collections; Prof. W. C. White, D.D., F.R.S.C. (Bishop), Assistant Director and Keeper of East Asiatic Collections; Miss Helen E. Fernald, A.B., Assistant Keeper East Asiatic Collections.

The museum possesses large collections that show the primitive skill of the men in the Palaeolithic, Neolithic, Copper, and Bronze ages. The early grain civilizations are illustrated in five galleries of Babylonian and Egyptian objects; the classical period occupies ten galleries, and ethnology and the American Indian, twelve. Of civilization later than that of Rome, special attention has been given to the collection of arms, glazed earthenware, Chinese ceramics, Japanese work, woodwork and furniture, textiles, embroideries and laces, and prints, including the Dr. Sigmund Samuel Canadiana Collection.

The collections have been formed to teach as far as possible the history of mechanical work, and to be a stimulus to the modern worker.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM OF GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.—Professor E. S. Moore M.A., Ph.D., F.R.S.C., Director; Professor V. B. Meen, M.A., Ph.D., Associate Director; Professor A. L. Parsons, B.A., F.R.S.C., Director Emeritus of Mineralogy.

The museum occupies two galleries. The exhibits in the north gallery are partly arranged on an economic basis, sections being devoted to ores, fuels, ceramics, building stones, abrasives, refractories, etc. Especial attention has been directed to building and ornamental stones; copper, nickel, radium, silver and gold ores, Canadian coals, etc. The geology of famous mining regions is illustrated by mine models and suites of specimens. There are models of an oil field and oil well with working pump. Glacial geology has received much consideration; striated surfaces, striated stones, and tillites are represented from all the known Ice ages and from all parts of the world. Dynamic and Structural Geology are well represented by numerous specimens and models, and there is a large collection of water colour paintings of glacial features.

The south gallery contains an unusually complete series of minerals from all parts of the world as well as a special collection of Canadian minerals; collections of cut gems, crystals, meteorites, rocks; and a special series to illustrate the mineral association found in deposits of gold, silver, lead, zinc, radium and nickel, as well as certain non-metallic series. Among the popular exhibits are a reconstructed crystal cave and a collection to show the fluorescence of minerals.

A large part of these collections has been presented by persons connected with the mining industry.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM OF PALAEONTOLOGY—Professor L. S. Russell, M.A., Ph.D., F.R.S.C., Director; Professor Madeleine A. Fritz, M.A., Ph.D., F.R.S.C., Associate Director.

The museum contains extensive series of Invertebrate fossils arranged to illustrate the anatomy and classification of the different zoological branches, and to indicate the important faunas of the geological ages. Vertebrate fossils are represented by numerous reptiles and by an excellent collection of mammals and fishes. The mounted skeletons of dinosaurs from Alberta are a feature of especial importance. Fossil plants are shown by good series of Carboniferous, Cretaceous, and Interglacial forms. The collections contain, also, a special Canadian series designed for the use of students of Canadian geology.

Much unique material is included in the exhibits, and numerous type specimens of particular value, e.g., Matthew's types of Cambrian fossils from eastern Canada and type dinosaurs from the Cretaceous formations of Alberta.

The walls of the galleries of invertebrate palaeontology are decorated with an elaborate series of paintings portraying successive stages in the development of the earth. They emphasize particularly the animals and plants of past ages.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM OF ZOOLOGY—Professor J. R. Dymond, M.A., F.R.S.C., O.B.E., Director; Lester L. Snyder, Assistant Director.

The exhibits are arranged in two galleries, one showing a representative series of animals foreign to Canada; the other, a fairly complete series of Canadian vertebrate animals and representative series of invertebrates. In the introductory portion of the Canadian gallery special exhibits are arranged including realistic reproductions of scenes showing animals as they are found in nature.

Aside from the Museum's teaching exhibits, it possesses extensive study collections. These are richest in Canadian forms but the bird collection includes that of the late J. H. Fleming representing birds of the world; consequently the Museum holds a position of importance with its store for ornithological research.

DIVISION OF MUSEUM EXTENSION—E. C. Cross, Chief; Miss A. M. Hutchison, B.A., B.Ed., Administrative Assistant; Miss E. A. MacKenzie, B.A., Public Relations Assistant; Miss Catherine Steele, M.A., Supervisor, Education Section.

This Division has been organized to enlarge the Museum's service to the public in all fields. More extensive co-operation with schools is being put into effect, and an adult education program of afternoon and evening courses is under way. Through this Division the Museum will offer travelling collections and other services to outlying parts of the Province.

THE SYNAGOGUE IN CANADA

The Jews of Canada number 168,367 (Census 1941). There is no federation of synagogues in Canada. Each synagogue is autonomous, is responsible to no superiors, affiliated with no hierarchy. Any group of Jews may form a synagogue, which does not necessarily require the services of a rabbi, any individual being eligible to lead in the recital of prayers.

There are three tendencies evident in Judaism—orthodox, conservative and reform. The orthodox tendency parallels the fundamentalist movement in Christianity; the reform tendency is modernism in Judaism; the conservative tendency is the middle movement.

The Holy Blossom Synagogue of Toronto, the Temple Emanu-El of Montreal, and the Anshe Sholom Synagogue of Hamilton are affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the federation of reform synagogues. The Shaar Hashomayim Synagogue of Montreal, the Goel Tzedek of Toronto the Adath Israel Congregation of Montreal and Beth Israel of Vancouver are affiliated with the United Synagogue of America (conservative). Most of the Canadian congregations are unaffiliated with any parent organization. These parent organizations have no authority over their constituent members.

Some external innovations of the reform group are worshipping without hats, the use of mixed choir and organ, the institution of a Sunday morning service (only at Holy Blossom Synagogue, Toronto) in addition to the Saturday morning service, the reading of prayers in English as well as in Hebrew, the addition of a sermon in English, and the sitting of men and women together. English prayers and sermons are also given in conservative synagogues. Most synagogues have religious schools. Some of these schools have sessions on Saturday and Sunday, and others on week days after public school hours. Among the leading synagogues of Canada are:

TORONTO, ONT.—Holy Blossom Synagogue (reform) Bathurst St. at Ava Rd.; Rabbi, Abraham L. Feinberg.

The President and Vice-President are elected for a four-year term (which ends at noon of January 20th) by a college of electors who are chosen by direct vote of the citizens in every state; the voting takes place on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November in every fourth (usually leap) year. Following this election the electors meet and give their votes at the respective state capitals on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December. The votes of the electors are opened and counted in the presence of both Houses of Congress on the 6th day of January. In actual practice, however, the electors invariably vote unanimously for their political party's nominees for President and Vice-President although there is no constitutional requirement compelling them to do so. As soon, therefore, as the popular votes in the November election are counted in each State, the results are made public, and thus the names of the President and Vice-President can readily be forecast.

The Statutory Salary of the President is $75,000 a year; $25,000 a year is also allowed the President for official entertainment expenses. The Salary is subject to statutory taxes.

Forms of Address.—The President is addressed in diplomatic correspondence: His Excellency; The Vice-President, Honourable. In ordinary correspondence: My dear Mr. President, or, more formally, To the President; or, Hon. ———, President.

UNITED STATES CABINET (Nov. 4, 1947)

Secretary of State—Gen. George C. Marshall, of Pennsylvania.
Secretary of the Treasury—John W. Snyder, of Missouri.
Secretary of Defense—James Forrestal, of New York.
Attorney General—Tom C. Clark, of Texas.
Postmaster General—

Secretary of the Interior—Julius A. Krug, of Wisconsin.
Secretary of Agriculture—Clinton P. Anderson, of New Mexico.
Secretary of Commerce—W. Averell Harriman, of New York.
Secretary of Labor—Lewis B. Schwellenbach, of Washington.

The Executive power is vested in the President, who appoints the Cabinet.

THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS

The Legislative power is vested in the United States Congress which consists of two houses: the Senate and the House of Representatives. The Senate consists of two Members from each State, elected for six years, one-third retiring every two years. The House of Representatives is elected for two years, each State choosing one or more representatives according to population. The period of a Congress is thus two years, a newly elected House of Representatives beginning its term and one-third of the Senators retiring at the same time. Congress must assemble at least once each year. Members of both Houses receive salaries of $12,500 a year with $2,500 expense account, plus allowances for travelling and clerical help. The last Congressional elections were held November 5, 1946.

This Department conducts regular university courses for teachers and special students, correspondence courses and summer sessions in subjects leading to the Permanent First Class Teachers' Certificate, the general B.A. degree, and the B.A. degree for teachers of elementary schools.

It carries on also a Summer School at Trois Pistoles, Quebec, where courses in the two official languages of the Dominion, English and French, are offered. The courses in French are from elementary to university standard. Those in English (Basic English), are general in nature and are intended for non-English speaking Canadians. Special courses in English for teachers are given in collaboration with the Provincial Secretary's Department, Province of Quebec.

The Department also provides regular University credit courses in a number of centres throughout Western and Central Ontario and offers in this area non-credit courses and many lectures on specialized topics to various groups and organizations. A lecture bureau makes available lectures by staff members.

The Summer School in conjunction with the Western Ontario Conservatory of Music and the London Little Theatre operates a School of Fine Arts offering courses in music, art, the theatre and archaeology.

THE CANADIAN AND CATHOLIC CONFEDERATION OF LABOUR

The Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labour is organized similarly to the Canadian Congress of Labour and the Trades and Labour Congress of Canada. It is affiliated with the International Conference of The Christian Syndicates, and confines its activity mostly to the Province of Quebec. It comprises 16 Federations and a number of local unions. It has approximately 82,000 members.

THE CANADIAN FEDERATION OF LABOUR

The Canadian Federation of Labour is defined in its constitution as "a fraternity of autonomous all-Canadian unions, equal in status, in no way subordinate one to another, . . . bound together by a common desire to defend and preserve the economic liberty of the workers".

Established in 1902 as the National Trades & Labour Congress of Canada, the Federation adopted its present name in 1908. In 1927, in a merger of several organizations it became known as the All-Canadian Congress of Labour, but it emerged again as the Federation in 1936.

The aggregate membership of the Federation is 53,600. The Federation leaves to the affiliated unions the publication of their own statistics. For this reason, the statistics usually furnished by governmental agencies are far from complete.

Rights and Warrants are subject to payment of Dominion stock transfer tax, as of June 28, 1946. The tax is to be figured on the same basis as stocks selling at a similar price.

STOCK TRANSFER TAX, ONTARIO

Upon every change of ownership consequent upon the sale, transfer or assignment of any share of stock of any association, company or corporation, or of any bond, debenture or share of debenture stock made or carried into effect in Ontario, or of any participating interest in the operations or profits of an association, company or corporation, represented by certificates or other instruments of title capable of being sold, transferred or assigned, including syndicate units, mineral deeds, oil royalties, and fixed investment trust shares issued by a trustee and representing an equitable ownership in deposited securities, and upon every order given to a broker in Ontario for the sale, transfer or assignment of any such securities when the order is to be executed outside of Ontario, there shall be imposed, levied and collected a transfer tax. The Scale of Tax is the same as for the Dominion of Canada, shown above.

These stamps and any further information may be obtained from the Treasury Department, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ontario

SECURITY TRANSFER TAX, QUEBEC

The Scale of Tax is the same as for the Dominion of Canada, shown above (except on shares of stock selling over $150.00—5c per share), on the following transactions:—

Upon every change of ownership of a security consequent upon the sale, the transfer or the assignment thereof, made in or carried into effect in Quebec Province;

Upon every order given in Quebec for the sale, transfer or assignment of a security, when such order is to be executed outside of Quebec;

Upon every delivery in Quebec of a security payable or transferable to bearer, when the sale, transfer or assignment thereof has been executed outside of Quebec;

Upon every payment made in Quebec, consequent upon the sale, transfer or assignment which has been executed outside of Quebec;

Upon every conversion in Quebec of a security into one which is payable or transferable to bearer;

Upon every transfer or delivery of securities in Quebec, effected for cancellation or exchange purposes; provided this paragraph shall not apply where the exchange of securities issued by one company is made for other securities issued by the same company to the same holder.

Only one of the provisions contained in the foregoing subsection 1 of this section may apply in this Province to the same transaction in securities.

Except as hereinafter provided, if a change of ownership otherwise than by sale is effected, of any share of stock, such change of ownership shall be subject to the tax imposed by this section, computed on the basis of the current market price of the aforesaid share of stock.

When a current market price has not been established by recent sales, or where it is difficult to ascertain the value of the shares of stock, the Provincial Treasurer may fix a price which shall be the price on which the tax shall be paid.

In this section, the term "share of stock" applies to the share of any undivided interest and the share of any participating interest, such as mentioned in sub-paragraph b of subsection 2 of section 1a of this Act.

In respect of transactions in fractional shares, the tax applies pro rata according to the rate exigible in respect of whole shares.

NOT SUBJECT TO THE TAX

Certain transactions not included above are exempt; such as transmissions owing to death, allotment of a first issue, transfers or assignments in connection with the security of a loan, etc.

For further information, apply to the Comptroller of Provincial Revenue, Quebec.

In 1942 the Naval Board was created as an advisory body to the Minister for Naval Services.

DEFENCE

The National Defence Act, which came into force January 1, 1923, provided for a Department of National Defence presided over by the Minister of National Defence. The organization and terms of service in the military forces of Canada, collectively called the "Canadian Army" are prescribed in the Militia Act, Chapter 132 Revised Statutes of Canada 1927.

Military Command and Administration of the Army is exercised through five Commands: Western, Prairie, Central, Quebec and Eastern.

Effective 1 January, 1947, six Areas were created within and subordinate to Commands.

ORGANIZATION

The Militia Act provides the Canadian Army shall consist of:

(a) The Active Force consisting of personnel permanently employed and comprising Field units and training, administrative, supply, maintenance and intercommunication elements. The Active Force supersedes the pre-war Permanent Force.

(b) The Reserve Force consisting of personnel not enrolled for continuous service except in an emergency, but liable to undergo annual Military training. The Reserve Force supersedes the pre-war Non-Permanent Active Militia.

regularize the training and, where desirable, to associate cadets with the Reserve Force

Cadets receive a realistic pre-military training. In addition, great emphasis is placed on the development of better physique and in the study of the future obligations of Cadets as citizens.

The total strength of the R.C. Army Cadets, August, 1947, is 50,000, organized in corps and detachments. The uniform is khaki with red cap flash.

THE ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE

The Royal Canadian Air Force (formed as the C.A.F. in 1920, granted the title "Royal" in 1923, and re-organized as a permanent force on April 1, 1924. Originally consisting of two components, Regular and Auxiliary, it was expanded during the war to include a Special Reserve, a Women's Division, and the Air Cadets. The pre-war strength of the Force was approximately 4,600 officers and men; during the course of the conflict the strength rose to a maximum of over 206,000, including more than 15,000 members of the Women's Division.

The R.C.A.F.'s major task in the War was the development and administration of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, under which 131,553 aircrew personnel were trained in the Dominion for the air forces of Britain, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand. Of the graduates of the training schools over 55% were members of the R.C.A.F., 32% of the R.A.F., and the remainder came from the R.A.A.F. and R.N.Z.A.F. The B.C.A.T.P. agreement, which had been signed at Ottawa in December 1939 and extended in June 1942, expired on March 31, 1945.

Between September 1939 and May 1945 units of the home establishment, operating from bases on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, in Alaska and the Aleutians, Newfoundland, Labrador and Iceland, were engaged in coastal patrol, convoy protection, anti-submarine and fighter duties. Overseas 47 R.C.A.F. squadrons served in the Western European, Mediterranean, Indian and Burmese theatres. Fourteen heavy bomber squadrons comprised No. 6 R.C.A.F. Group in Bomber Command; another was in the Pathfinder Force. Twenty day fighter, fighter-reconnaissance, fighter-bomber, night fighter and intruder squadrons fought over Western Europe as components of the 2nd Tactical Air Force and Fighter Command. Another day fighter squadron flew with the Desert Air Force in its campaigns from Egypt to Italy. In Coastal Command there were five R.C.A.F. units, including one based in Ceylon. Three transport squadrons carried troops and supplies in Western Europe and Burma, while three A.O.P. units worked with the Canadian Army in the Netherlands and Germany during the last weeks of the war. In addition to the personnel of these squadrons there were many thousands of R.C.A.F. aircrew and groundcrew who served with R.A.F. units overseas. Plans for the Force's participation in the 'second phase' against Japan—in addition to the two transport squadrons and R.C.A.F. personnel serving in the Far East—were cut short by the termination of hostilities.

For a time the R.C.A.F. contributed a number of squadrons for the British Air Forces of Occupation in Germany and for transport work. The last of these was disbanded in June 1946.

WOMEN'S DIVISION

The Women's Division of the R.C.A.F. which was organized in July 1941, enlisted throughout the war more than 17,000 women who were trained in approximately 40 different trades and released thousands of men for other duties. About 1500 W.D.'s saw service overseas. The first members of any of the Canadian women's forces to arrive in Britain were a draft from the R.C.A.F. Women's Division in 1942.

It is not proposed to retain W.D.'s in the peacetime Force. The Women's Division was completely demobilized by the end of 1946.

PERMANENT FORCE

The Force is divided into three Commands. North West Air Command and Central Air Command are organized to administer and train forces within their specific boundaries. Maintenance Command, which was organized in August 1945, directs and co-ordinates equipment, supply, aero engineering, construction engineering and aeronautical inspection throughout the Force. There are four Groups—No. 9 (Transport) Group directs and supervises the operation of Royal Canadian Air Force air transport and Royal Canadian Air Force air photography in accordance with Air Force Headquarters' policy. No. 10 and 11 Groups supervise and control the functional activities of such units specifically designated as forming part of the Groups, as directed by the Air Officer Commanding, Central Air Command. No. 12 Group has the same function as No. 10 and 11 Groups but it comes under the direction of the Air Officer Commanding, North West Air Command.

ROYAL CANADIAN AIR CADETS

The Air Cadet League of Canada was formed in November, 1940, as a voluntary civilian organization to foster and administer Air Cadets throughout Canada. The training programme for this organization was the responsibility of the R.C.A.F. and, together with the Air Cadet League, it encouraged and directed the airmindedness of Canadian youth and provided a preliminary training for potential members of the R.C.A.F. Regular and Reserve Forces. The Air Cadets became a component of the R.C.A.F. in April, 1943, and by Order in Council were renamed the Royal Canadian Air Cadets in July, 1946.

During the war, approximately 380 Squadrons were formed with a total membership of about 30,000. These numbers have been reduced and the Air Cadets are now on a peacetime basis with 200 Squadrons and 15,000 Cadets. A detailed and comprehensive syllabus of training has been prepared to provide Canadian youth with a basic education in aviation and other closely associated subjects which will better fit them for peacetime pursuits.

THE ROYAL CANADIAN NAVY

The strength of the Canadian Naval forces as of 31st August, 1939 was 352 officers, 3446 ratings, made up as follows:

	Officers	Men
R.C.N.	131	1643
R.C.N.R.	66	196
R.C.N.R. (Fisherman's Reserve).	40	154
R.C.N.V.R.	115	1453

At the peak of the war, the strength of the Canadian Navy was 95,705 with 378 warships and over 400 vessels of other types.

H.M.C.S. "ROYAL ROADS"

(The R.C.N.—R.C.A.F. College)

The Royal Canadian Naval College at Royal Roads, Victoria, B.C., was established on 1st October, 1942, with 100 cadets in attendance. In April, 1947, the College was re-organized to form the combined R.C.N. and R.C.A.F. College. The status of the College remains the same but its scope has been extended to train cadets for the Royal Canadian Air Force as well as for the Royal Canadian Navy. The College is administered by a Board of Governors and commanded by a Naval Officer. Candidates must be between the ages of 16½ and 19½ on the first of July of the year of entry.

WOMEN'S ROYAL CANADIAN NAVAL SERVICE

On August 29th, 1942, Kingsmill House in Ottawa was opened for the initial class of Wrens, and October 15th, 1942, marked the opening of the W.R.C.N.S. Training Establishment at Galt.

At December 1st, 1942, the Force consisted of 43 officers and 264 ratings. The strength of the W.R.C.N.S. at the peak, was 5,853 on V-E day. The force was demobilized completely in August, 1946.

PERMANENT ESTABLISHMENT

The following announcement has been made by the Minister of National Defence with regard to the post-war navy:

"Plans will result in ships and personnel being equally distributed on Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Operating out of Halifax will be the new aircraft carrier "Magnificent" when she is taken over and three destroyers. The major unit based in Esquimalt will be the cruiser "Ontario". There will also be three destroyers on the west coast. "Warrior" (aircraft carrier) and "Uganda" (cruiser) will be placed in reserve. Canada's five other destroyers will be kept in reserve. It is not intended to recruit personnel to an extent greater than 75 per cent of the numbers set for planning purposes a year ago".

These figures were 10,000 officers and men in the permanent force, with a reserve force of 18,000.

COMPONENTS OF THE NAVAL FORCES

The Naval Forces comprise the following components:

- (i) Royal Canadian Navy.
- (ii) Royal Canadian Navy (Reserve).

ROYAL CANADIAN NAVY

The Royal Canadian Navy is constituted as a permanent naval force. It consists of officers and men who are entered or engaged for general service whether in peace or war.

Aviation is an integral part of the Royal Canadian Navy. One 18,000 ton light Fleet class carrier, equipped with two squadrons of aircraft—one consisting of Firefly fighter-bomber-reconnaissance planes, and one of Seafire fighters—is in full commission.

The present carrier—H.M.C.S. "Warrior"—will go into reserve in 1948, and will be replaced by H.M.C.S. "Magnificent", a more modern vessel now under construction in the United Kingdom.

ROYAL CANADIAN NAVY (RESERVE)

(1) The Royal Canadian Navy (Reserve) is constituted as a naval volunteer reserve force and consists of officers and men raised by voluntary engagement from among seafaring persons and others who are deemed suitable for the service in which volunteers are employed.

(2) It consists of two sections, namely:

(a) An Active List, whose members undergo periodic training and may perform voluntary service during peacetime, and may be permitted to perform special duty in the Royal Canadian Navy in lieu of an officer or man of like or higher rank or rating provided for by the authorized complement of the Royal Canadian Navy but not borne; and

(b) A Retired List of officers and Emergency List of men, whose members are not required to undergo training, but who may be permitted to (i) undergo periodic training or perform voluntary service in peacetime in lieu of an officer or man on the Active List who is eligible, but unable to undergo training or perform voluntary service and (ii) Perform special duty in the Royal Canadian Navy in lieu of an officer or man of like or higher rank or rating provided for by the authorized complement of the Royal Canadian Navy but not borne.

(3) All members are liable to be placed on active service in time of emergency for whatever length of time the Governor-General-in-Council prescribes.

ROYAL CANADIAN SEA CADET CORPS

Admiral of the Sea Cadets, His Majesty the King.

Organized December 16th, 1895 by the Navy League of Canada, Sea Cadet Corps were subsequently organized in various centres across Canada and, up to and including June 1st, 1941, these Cadet Services were operated by the Navy League in association with the Department of National Defence, Army. Following June 1st, 1941 this association was transferred to the Navy, since which time the Royal Canadian Navy has assumed the responsibility of certain jurisdiction, training and supervision of Sea Cadet Corps, and the operation of summer training camps, with the Navy League being responsible for financing, administration, and general operation both nationally and locally.

Authorized strength in 1947 is 87 Sea Cadet Corps with a complement of 10,000 Cadets. The age limit for Sea Cadets is from 14 to 18 years of age inclusive.

David H. Gibson, C.B.E., Toronto, is Dominion President of The Navy League and James Moffat of Weston, Ont., is Vice-President for Sea Cadets. Captain A. P. Musgrave, O.B.E., R.C.N., is the Director of Sea Cadets for Naval Service, Dept. of National Defence, Ottawa. Lieut.-Commander D. C. Elliott, R.C.N., is the Deputy Director of Sea Cadets.

This will apply in a similar manner to the other services.

DRAWBACK ON GOODS IMPORTED INTO CANADA AND EXPORTED THEREFROM

The following regulations have been established governing Customs and Excise drawback on goods imported into Canada and thereafter exported, effective on and from September 1, 1946.

When imported goods on which duties and/or taxes have been paid are exported from Canada, there may, subject to the following conditions and for the duration of the war, be allowed a drawback of ninety-nine per cent of the duties and/or taxes paid thereon:—

1. The drawback shall be paid to exporter of the goods.

2. Whole packages of goods as imported may be broken and part only thereof exported, but no use shall have been made in Canada of the goods exported;

3. The quantity and identification of such goods imported and exported and the amount of duties and/or taxes paid thereon shall be ascertained;

4. Claims for drawback submitted on and after September 1, 1946, shall not cover goods exported for a period of more than twelve consecutive months and must be filed with the Collector and complete evidence attached thereto within a period of six months from the date of the last export entry covered by the claim. Such drawback claims shall not be paid unless the duties and/or taxes have been paid on the goods within three years of the date of exportation thereof, nor unless the entered value for duty of the goods exported, on which claim is made, is in the aggregate more than fifty dollars;

5. Claims for drawback shall be made under oath before a Collector, Justice of the Peace or Commissioner for taking Oaths, in such form as the Minister shall prescribe and shall, before payment, be verified to the satisfaction of the Minister, who may require, in any case, the production of such further evidence, in addition to the usual averments, as he deems necessary to establish the bona fides of the claim. Nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to alter or amend the law, or to affect any discretion vested in the Minister with respect to the payment or non-payment of drawbacks, and the Minister shall be the sole judge as to whether any claim for drawback shall be paid in whole or in part.

6. Upon the exportation of goods entitled to drawback, export entries, in triplicate, in the usual form (with the words "subject to Drawback" marked on the face), shall be filed with the Collector at the port of exit from Canada, naming the conveyance by which and the country or place to which the goods are to be exported and fully describing the kind and quantity thereof and also the marks and numbers on the packages;

7. The following documents shall be delivered with the claim for drawback:—

(a) A copy of the import entry showing payment of duties and/or taxes on the goods imported and exported, on which drawback is claimed. If a copy of the import entry, however, has been furnished with a previous claim for drawback, it will be sufficient to "refer" to such copy and indicate the claim to which it was attached, without furnishing a further copy of the entry;

(b) A certified true copy of the export invoice;

(c) A copy of the export entry, duly numbered and certified by the Collector at the port of exit where the goods were entered for exportation from Canada;

(d) A certificate of importation, sale or transfer, in form prescribed by the Minister, when the claimant entitled to drawback is not the importer of the goods.

9. Drawback is not payable in respect of Customs penalties imposed on imported goods, nor in respect of goods referred to above which are returned to the country from whence imported.

Detailed information may be obtained at District Drawback Offices located at Halifax, N.S., Saint John, N.B., Montreal, P.Q., Ottawa, Oshawa, Toronto, Hamilton, London and Windsor, Ont. Winnipeg, Man., and Vancouver, B.C.

CUSTOMS PROCEDURE, ETC.

EXPORTING TO THE UNITED STATES

The customs laws of the United States, governing the importation of goods, very materially differ from ours. They have no such thing as the manifesting system such as we have, and all merchandise is supposed to be entered at the first port of arrival. However, they have ports termed I.T. Ports (immediate transport ports) to which goods may be forwarded in bond, without appraisement at the frontier port. In this case the goods must be carefully marked "Forwarded in Bond."

Merchandise, in order to be entered under Immediate Transportation, without appraisement at the frontier, must be destined to a designated immediate transportation port, and must be billed via a port at which merchandise may be entered for transportation to another port without appraisement.

These ports through which goods must be billed and to which they must be consigned may be learned from the transportation company as the lists are too extensive to be given space here.

If goods are destined for a foreign country they are entirely under Transportation and Exportation entry in bond, in transit, for exportation from the seaboard port.

EXPORTING TO OTHER COUNTRIES

Exporters requiring information regarding invoice forms and Customs Regulations of other countries, applying to goods exported from Canada, should write to Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa.

GIFTS TO THOSE ON ACTIVE SERVICE

To be exported as gifts, addressed to members of the armed forces of the British Empire or their Allies, do not require a permit to export.

GOODS TO BE RETURNED TO THE U.S.

Merchants finding it necessary to return goods not according to order and wishing to obtain refund of duty will be required to make out four different forms to accompany the way bill when goods are shipped back. If shipment is over $100.00 the forms are as follows:

1. "Foreign Owner's Oath" or "Oath of American Manufacture."
2. American Consular Certificate.
3. Export papers in triplicate.
4. One certified copy of Customs Incoming Manifest.

F.E.C.B. export permit—5 copies.

Where shipment is under $100.00 the American Consular Certificate and Incoming Manifest are not required.

The intending consignee must send to the U.S. shipper for an affidavit on a prescribed form, mentioned above as the Oath of American Manufacture, declaring the goods to be of United States origin or manufacture, in order that the goods when returned may pass the U.S. Customs without duty.

When this affidavit is received it must be attached to the way bill by the transportation agent here and forwarded along with the goods. This will enable the United States Customs Officer at the frontier to recognize the goods as home manufacture and have them forwarded on to destination without duty. The original U.S. shipper may secure these forms at his Customs, but a better way is for the intending consignee to secure a copy from the local express agent here and forward same to the U.S. firm with all necessary explanation as to line of procedure and thus avoid possible delay.

The American Consular Certificate forms must be obtained from the nearest American Consul, who will send blank forms in triplicate. These must be filled in as required and returned to the American Consul with his fee, when he will return one copy to the intending consignee, who will attach same to way bill with other documents mentioned.

Export entry, procurable from Customs Department, must be made out by consignee in triplicate and attached to way bill together with the Foreign Owner's Oath, Consular Certificate and Incoming Manifest. One copy will remain on file at the port of exit, the second copy goes to the Customs Department and the third copy will be returned by the Customs officer at the Canadian port of exit to the merchant who returned the goods. He will then attach it to the refund of duty claim along with a copy of the way bill as a guarantee that the goods have been returned.

BRITISH CUSTOMS

See Article on British Customs Duties elsewhere in this Almanac.

CURRENCY CERTIFICATE OF INVOICE

Importers should, when ordering goods from Britain or any foreign country, instruct the exporter or salesman to always give the value of the goods in the home consumption column of the invoice and to show the same in the currency of the country of export.

Internal taxes should be definitely stated.

The exporter should also be very carefully instructed to place on the invoice the currency certificate.

In respect of invoices of goods from Great Britain or from any country where the currency has not substantially depreciated, the certificate of the exporter, showing the relative value of the paper currency in standard currency, as indicated by the form below, is accepted.

EXPORTER'S CERTIFICATE

The fair market value for home consumption at time shipped, shown on this invoice, is £. . . s. . . d. . . (currency of country) in paper currency, and is equivalent to £. . . s. . . d. . . (currency of country), in gold sovereigns as compared with the Canadian dollar on basis of $. . . to the pound Sterling.

Signed.
(by exporter)

In other cases where the currency has substantially depreciated, there must be furnished a certificate, signed by a Consul or a Canada Trade Commissioner, or of a Bank, in the following form:—

CERTIFICATE OF CONSUL

I certify that at the date of exportation of the goods described in the within or annexed invoice, the true value of the currency, in which the invoice is made out, as compared with the standard dollar of Canada, is at the rate of.

(Dollars and Cents)

per.
(Here give the unit of currency of Invoice).

Signed.

GOODS SHORT LANDED

In the case of goods duty paid and short received, delivery of same upon subsequent arrival can be obtained, without payment of duty anew, only when the following regulations are observed:—

(a) Notice of the short receipt of goods must be given to the collector in writing within thirty days of entry.

(b) If the goods have been omitted from the shipment, a declaration to that effect must be produced from the exporter.

(c) If a portion of the consignment has been delayed in transit by the carriers, a declaration to this effect will be required from the latter.

(d) No portion of a consignment of goods, duty-paid, in respect of which a short shipment occurs, is to be disposed of by the importer until the appraiser has had an opportunity of checking over the goods.

Settlers' effects are admitted duty free, if actually owned abroad by the settler for at least six months before his removal to Canada, and subject to regulations prescribed by the Minister.

Provided that any dutiable article entered as settlers' effects may not be so entered unless brought by the settler on his first arrival, and shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of without payment of duty until after twelve months' actual use in Canada.

Settlers' effects, viz:—Machines and implements for agricultural purposes, moved by mechanical power, and motor vehicles valued at not more than one thousand dollars, and boats for fishing purposes, if actually owned abroad by the settler for at least six months before his removal to Canada, are free subject to regulations prescribed by the Minister of National Revenue.

AUTOMOBILES IMPORTED BY NON-RESIDENTS FOR PLEASURE PURPOSES ONLY

1. Automobiles imported by non-residents for their personal transportation may be admitted without the payment of duty thereon, under Traveller's Vehicle Permit (Form E. 50) subject to the following regulations:

On arrival at the frontier Customs port of entry, the driver of the automobile shall report at Customs and apply for a permit. The applicant for a permit shall be a non-resident of Canada and a temporary visitor therein. He or she shall be the owner of the automobile, or a member of the immediate family of the owner, who is also a non-resident of Canada, or shall be able to produce written authority from the owner to use such vehicle.

The automobile shall be admissible only when imported for the use of the non-resident permit holder, for the transportation of such non-resident, his family and guests, and such incidental carriage of articles as may be necessary and appropriate to the purposes of the journey, but not to be used for the transportation of persons or articles for hire, nor in any case primarily for the carriage of

2. Temporary Admission, forty-eight Hours, at Ports and Outposts on the Frontier Only—In respect of automobiles entering Canada for a stay not exceeding forty-eight hours, when the Collector or Sub-Collector is satisfied that conditions of subsections (a) and (b) of Section 1 are complied with, he is authorized to permit entry upon the owner surrendering his State license card, which will be returned to him on the return journey. In such cases, the use of Form E. 50 may be dispensed with.

3. Traveller's vehicle Permits for a Period not Exceeding Sixty Days—In respect of automobiles entering Canada for a period not exceeding sixty days, the Collector, if satisfied that the conditions stipulated in sub-sections (a) and (b) of Section 1 are complied with, may admit the vehicle without formal entry and may issue a permit on Form E. 50 for a period not exceeding sixty days.

(a) Should a traveller who has been granted a sixty-day permit desire an extension for a further period up to six months from the time of original entry, he may, upon presentation of the permit before the expiry date of same, apply for such extension to any Collector or Sub-Collector of Customs and Excise, who, upon being satisfied as to the bona fides of the use of the automobile may issue a new Form E50 and retain the expired permit for cancellation.

4. Traveller's vehicle Permits for a Period in Excess of Sixty Days—If, on reporting at the Customs frontier port of arrival, the non-resident owner of an automobile desires a traveller's vehicle permit for a period in excess of sixty days, the Collector, if satisfied that the conditions stipulated in sub-sections (a) and (b) of Section 1 are complied with, may admit the vehicle without formal entry and may issue a permit on Form E. 50 for the period designated by the traveller, such period, however, in the first instance, not to exceed six months.

If, through accident, illness or other unusual circumstances, the exportation of the vehicle at the expiration of six months from the date of the original entry cannot be effected, the matter shall be reported to the Deputy Minister of National Revenue for Customs and Excise, Ottawa, who, if satisfied as to the bona fides of the application, may authorize the extension of the traveller's vehicle permit for such additional period of time as may be necessary, and may specify the conditions under which such extension may be granted, and with what security.

COMMERCIAL VEHICLES

5. Carrying Passengers Only—Automobiles, motor trucks and other motor vehicles owned by British or foreign subjects may enter Canada and return to the United States without payment of duty on such vehicles when employed in conveying passengers in transit across the frontier, provided they are employed only for through transportation of passengers (either or both ways) between a point or place in the United States and a point or place in Canada. - (a) a cash deposit equivalent to the duty and taxes payable on the automobile, or

6. Carrying Goods—Automobiles, motor trucks and other highway vehicles owned by British or foreign subjects, carrying goods (dutiable or not) for delivery to a point in Canada may be admitted under Commercial Vehicle Permit (Form E. 50-B), under the provisions of Section 5 above if proceeding to an interior port with a load (and under the same Section but without requiring a bond if the goods imported thereby are intended for delivery within the limits of the frontier port of arrival, provided the Collector is satisfied that security is not required), subject to due entry at Customs at the frontier port of arrival of all goods to be discharged in Canada, and the payment of all duties and taxes to which such goods may be liable, failing which, they must be forwarded in bond under manifest by railway to the point of destination. Provided, however, that goods arriving by highway vehicles entitled to entry on Form B. 4 or B 4½ as settler's effects, and goods for bona fide exhibitions, or horses for racing purposes eligible for entry on Form B. 18, may be allowed to proceed to interior destinations under Commercial Vehicle Permit for the vehicle, and manifest Form A-8 for the goods, without convoy; the same privilege may be granted in respect of articles for special use, and horses for breeding purposes, if the report and deposit required under Memo D No. 23 (Revised 1942) and No. 5 respectively, are not made at the frontier, in which case the report, and deposit (if any) shall be made at the port of destination.

(a) The exemption from duty prescribed in these Regulations shall not apply to vehicles used by peddlers with goods for sale, in which case duty and taxes are to be collected, having due regard to the provisions of Tariff Item 1215.

(b) The term "local traffic" used in this Regulation, and in the bond forms established in connection therewith, and the term "through transportation" shall not be held to prevent motor vehicles of foreign origin and not duty paid brought in by non-residents of Canada and Used in the International Conveyance of Passengers—from, (i) discharging passengers at different points in Canada on the inward trip, provided such passengers are destined through direct from the point of embarkation to the point of discharge, or (ii) taking on passengers at different points in this country on the outward journey, provided the passengers so laden are destined through direct from the point of lading to a point in a foreign country; This not to include the privilege of taking on passengers at one point in Canada and discharging such passengers of another point therein.

(b) Upon the application being approved, the applicant shall be required to submit to the Department the bond of a Guarantee Company acceptable to the Dominion Government in approved form as set forth in Appendix I hereof in a penal sum to be fixed by the Minister not to exceed $80,000, the bond to remain in full force and effect for a period of twelve months unless revoked prior to expiration, and shall be subject to renewal thereafter annually with the approval of the Department.

8. Arriving Empty to Obtain Load for Export at Frontier or Inland Port—Automobiles or motor vehicles of foreign origin and not duty paid, being driven into Canada to obtain a load for export, may be admitted under the provisions of Section 6 if proceeding to an interior port for a load, and under the same Section but without requiring a bond if obtaining the load within the limits of the frontier port of arrival, provided the Collector is satisfied that security is not required. Export entries must be required in respect of all goods exported by motor vehicle.

9. Automobiles, trucks and other vehicles exported temporarily by residents of Canada.

(a) Automobiles, trucks and other vehicles of Canadian origin, or duty paid in Canada, whether travelling under their own power or transported by rail or ship, may be exported, temporarily, upon execution of Form E-60. This Form (which may be issued and verified at any Port in Canada) and the relative Provincial Motor Vehicle Permit, are required to be shown to Canadian Customs when departing from or returning to Canada. This means of identification permits the car and equipment to be admitted without payment of duty and taxes, except upon the value of repairs and equipment acquired abroad, as noted in paragraph (b).

(b) If it became necessary, because of an accident, to have repairs made abroad in order to enable the vehicle to continue the tour and return under its own power, the compulsory repairs so made shall be exempt from duty and taxes. In cases where no accident to the vehicle has occurred, but tire casings or inner tubes, or both, have been replaced in the ordinary course, exemption from duty and taxes may be granted under this regulation on one tire casing and one inner tube only.

(c) If additional equipment is installed and when the Provincial Motor Vehicle Permit expires, a new Identification Form E-60 is required.

AIRCRAFT IMPORTED TEMPORARILY BY NON-RESIDENTS FOR PLEASURE PURPOSES

10. Aircraft imported by non-residents for purposes of health or pleasure only may be admitted for a period not exceeding three months, without the payment of duty thereon and under Permit Form C. 15, subject to the following conditions:

(a) First alighting of the aircraft shall be made at a Customs Airport or at any Customs Port or Outport of entry, provided that, in the latter event, advance notice of date and approximate time of arrival shall have been given to the proper officer of Customs.

(b) On arrival the owner or pilot of the aircraft shall make report inwards to Customs and apply for issuance of Form C. 15.

(c) The aircraft shall not be used at any time or in any manner for purposes of trade or profit.

(d) Prior to final take-off for departure from Canada, which shall be from a Customs Airport or Customs Port or Outport of Entry, Permit Form C. 15 shall be surrendered to the proper officer of Customs, the aircraft reported outwards and clearance granted.

(e) No fee will be collected for Customs attendance in connection with the entry or clearance of aircraft for pleasure purposes, nor will there be any charge for the transportation of an officer to and from the flying field when first landing or final departure takes place at an airport where full time Customs service is provided or during the period of the day when an officer is regularly on duty at airports which have only part time Customs service. However, the expense of an officer's transportation to and from an airport to provide service shall be repaid by the parties accommodated when such service is requested and provided at (i) Airports outside the hours during which a Customs officer is regularly on duty, and (ii) Airports at which no Customs officer is regularly on duty.

NOTE: Advice to Customs officers as to time and place of first arrival at a Canadian Customs port shall be forwarded by telegraph, and the journey shall not be commenced until a telegraphic reply (sent "collect") has been received from the Canadian Customs officer. The importance of this will be realized when one considers the possibility of overflying the intended airport, or landing at another place by mistake, or making a forced landing, in all of which cases the reply from the Canadian Customs officer will assist in establishing the bona fides of the tourist in making his report to Customs or the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, as the case may be. Without such a telegram the tourist's presence at a place where no advance notice of his arrival had been received might render him subject to suspicion.

Other regulations provide for dogs passing through Canada under certain conditions without certificate.

This certificate must be shown to the Canadian Customs officer at each time of entry of the dog into Canada.

TRAVELLERS' BAGGAGE

5. General Provisions—Wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment, toilet articles and similar personal effects of persons arriving in Canada may be passed free, without entry at Customs, as travellers' baggage, under the provisions of the Customs Tariff, but this provision shall include only such articles as actually accompany and are in the use of and as are necessary and appropriate for the wear and use of such persons for the immediate purpose of the journey and present comfort and convenience, and shall not be held to apply to merchandise or articles intended for other persons or for sale. Merchandise for Sale, when brought into Canada as baggage, is subject to duty and to entry at Customs in the same manner as goods imported by freight or express.

6. Tools of Trade—Usual tools of trade, occupation or employment of a workman, previously used by him, if imported for his personal use and actually in his possession at the time of his arrival in Canada may be admitted free as Travellers' Baggage.

RETURNING RESIDENTS' EXEMPTION $100

7. Under the provisions of the Customs Tariff, free entry is granted in respect of "goods valued at not more than one hundred dollars included in the baggage accompanying residents of Canada returning from abroad after an absence from Canada of not less than 48 hours and acquired by them for personal or household use or as souvenirs or gifts, but not bought on commission or as an accommodation for other persons or for sale, under regulations prescribed by the Minister, provided that a resident of Canada shall not be entitled to the exemption herein granted within a period of four months from the date of the last exemption allowed, nor shall the exemption be allowed on alcoholic beverages in excess of one quart, or on tobacco in excess of fifty cigars, two hundred cigarettes and two pounds of manufactured tobacco.

The following regulations have been prescribed by the Minister:

(a) All goods in respect of which exemption is claimed shall be declared in writing on Customs Declaration Form E. 24, in duplicate, unless the total value upon which exemption claimed does not exceed $5.

(b) The exemption granted shall be limited to goods actually accompanying a returning resident of Canada and brought in by him as baggage at the time exemption is claimed, and shall not be granted to any person under the age of fourteen years.

(c) A person who has been allowed exemption of less than $100 on a previous occasion shall not be entitled to add to the amount of a subsequent exemption the difference between the amount previously allowed and full exemption.

(d) Goods belonging to one person cannot be included in the exemption claimed by another.

(e) Returning residents must state in their declaration in Canadian currency the price actually paid for all goods purchased abroad in respect of which exemption is claimed, and must state a fair market value for all goods obtained abroad other than by purchase, such as gifts. The purchase price or value stated is not necessarily the value for duty, but must be declared in order to assist the appraising officer in arriving at the correct value for duty. To facilitate appraisal invoices or sales slips should be presented where possible.

(f) If personal effects or goods taken abroad be advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad by reason of repairs or alterations further than that necessarily incidental to wear and use while abroad, the cost or value of such repairs or alterations is subject to duty. Such cost or value may, however, be included within the $100 exemption.

(g) In cases where goods for which exemption is claimed have a combined value of over $100, exemption is to be applied, where practicable, to the goods subject to the highest rates of duty.

(h) All dutiable goods obtained abroad for which exemption cannot be allowed, must be entered at customs and duty paid in the ordinary course.

(i) These regulations shall not be construed to be applicable to any goods the importation of which is prohibited, except as specifically provided for in Tariff Item 703 (b).

The E-29 must be surrendered by the holder and exportation must be made within six months from the date of entry (unless otherwise provided for), and any cash deposit which may have been furnished will then be subject to refund, otherwise it will be taken to account as duty and taxes. The goods must be identified by a Customs Officer prior to exportation.

(b) Although the furnishing of a deposit may be required by the regulations, any Collector of Customs may, in his discretion, waive its collection if the imported articles entered under Form E-29, are to be used within the limits of his own port, under such precautions or provisions as he may consider necessary to secure the due exportation thereof immediately after such use.

To convert dollars into sterling, take the pounds opposite the nearest amount below the dollars to be converted; the balance will then be found in the s.d. table.

As an example—

Nearest amount below = $440.36 = £109: 0: 0

balance = 3.03 = 15: 0

$443.39 = £109:15:0

Amounts of 10 times or 100 times those given in table may be conveniently calculated by moving decimal point one or two places to the right.

As an example—to convert £840:0:0 to $,—£84:0:0 is $339 36; move decimal 1 place to right = $3,393.60.

CARTER'S MIDNIGHT INK

A PERMANENT blue-black ink for fountain pen and steel pen use. Writes a vivid blue that is easy on the eyes under natural or artificial light. It is an iron-gall ink which becomes a permanent black after oxidizing. Midnight Ink is thus specially indicated for bookkeeping or for record purposes.

Exceptionally free from sediment it is the finest fountain pen ink made. Midnight Ink is packed in attractive, convenient containers. The scientifically made directional pourout ensures smooth, even flow and absolute freedom from dripping.
